

Endangered and Rare Species Habitat-Linkage Map from Natures' Network

Nature's Network is a U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service scientific collaboration with partners from 13 states, federal agencies, nongovernmental organizations, and universities to identify the best opportunities for conserving and connecting intact habitats and ecosystems and supporting imperiled species to help ensure the future of fish and wildlife across the Northeastern U.S. region.

Map Credit—NALCC, UMass, The Nature Conservancy, C. Tracey, K. Ruddock